Important Notes:

1. The students those who have dues like College fee, Hostel fee, Bus fee, Library books etc., have to clear immediately. Otherwise the exam application will not be processed.
2. Pay the Regular & Supplementary exam fee through “State Bank Collect” only.
3. Fee Payment Link is available in our college website.
4. Supplementary Exam Application Forms are available in our college website <http://www.srivasaviengg.ac.in/tcapplication.php> and also available at examination cell.
5. All applicants have to submit the e-Receipt of State Bank Collect along with filled application form and latest results copy to the examination cell. Submission of above to the exam cell is mandatory to consider his/her application for examination.
6. Please note that, for the time being, the regular examination applications are collected from all students, whether they put up minimum attendance or not to enable the examination section to process the applications. However, the regular examination applications of those only will be forwarded to the university, who put up minimum required attendance by last working day.

Hence, it should be noted that mere collection of application form does not entitle a student to appear for the exam, unless one satisfies the attendance requirement.
